STATE OF FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

In Re: DETERMINATION OF AREAS OF CRITICAL NEED PURSUANT TO SECTION 458.315, FLORIDA STATUTES

WHEREAS, section 458.315, Florida Statutes, provides that a Temporary Certificate may be issued to a physician who will practice in an area of critical need; and

WHEREAS, section 458.315 (3)(a), Florida Statutes, provides that I, as the State Surgeon General shall determine the areas of critical need.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SCOTT A. RIVKEES, M.D., pursuant to the authority granted by section 458.315 (3)(a), Florida Statutes, determine that the areas of critical need within the State of Florida are the Health Professional Shortage Areas (HPSA), designated by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration, as displayed at:

<https://data.hrsa.gov/tools/shortage-area/hpsa-find>.

In addition, the following institutions which have been operating as an approved institution in a designated area of critical need but which are not located in a Health Professional Shortage Area (HPSA) as designated by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, shall continue to be designated and approved as an area of critical need for so long as the facility continues to provide health care to meet the needs of the underserved population in its area, or until further Order by the State Surgeon General:
